THE VICTORIA CROSS

CONTINUED FROM

"The Monthly Army Lists" of March, June, July, October and December, 1857, January, February, May, July, September, October and November, 1858, January, February, May, June, July, August, October, November and December, 1859, February, March, June, July, September, October and December, 1860, March, April, August and September, 1861, March, June, July and December, 1862, May, 1863, and February, August and September, 1864.

War Office, September 22nd, 1864.

THE QUEEN has been graciously pleased to signify her intention to confer the Decoration of "The Victoria Cross" on the under-mentioned Officers and Drummer of Her Majesty's Army, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in New Zealand, as stated against their names, viz. :—

Royal Artillery.—Assistant Surgeon WILLIAM GEORGE NICHOLAS MANLEY.—Date of Act of Bravery, April 29th, 1864.—For his conduct during the assault on the Rebel Pah, near Tauranga, New Zealand, on the 29th of April last, in most nobly risking his own life, according to the testimony of Commodore Sir William Wiseman, Bart., C.B., in his endeavour to save that of the late Commander Hay, of the Royal Navy, and others. Having volunteered to accompany the storming party into the Pah, he attended on that Officer when he was carried away mortally wounded, and then volunteered to return, in order to see if he could find any more wounded. It is stated that he was one of the last Officers to leave the Pah.

Royal Artillery.—Assistant Surgeon WILLIAM TEMPLE and Lieutenant ARTHUR FREDERICK PICKARD.—Date of Acts of Bravery, November 20th, 1863.—For gallant conduct during the assault on the enemy's position at Rangiriri, in New Zealand, on the 20th November last, in exposing their lives to imminent danger, in crossing the entrance of the Maori keep, at a point upon which the enemy had concentrated their fire, with a view to render assistance to the wounded, and, more especially to the late Captain Mercer, of the Royal Artillery. Lieutenant Pickard, it is stated, crossed, and re-crossed the parapet, to procure water for the wounded, when none of the men could be induced to perform this service, the space over which he traversed being exposed to a cross-fire; and testimony is borne to the calmness displayed by him, and Assistant Surgeon Temple, under the trying circumstances in which they were placed.

57th Regiment.—Ensign JOHN THORNTON DOWN and Drummer DUDLEY STAGPOOLE.—Date of Acts of Bravery, October 2nd, 1863.—For their conduct at Pontoko, on the 2nd October, in rescuing a wounded comrade from the rebel Maories. They succeeded in bringing in the wounded man, who was lying at about fifty yards from the bush, although the enemy kept up a very heavy fire from the bush at short range, and also from behind fallen logs close at hand. The man had been wounded during an engagement with the rebel natives, and Ensign Down and Drummer Stagpoole, responded to the call of the Officer commanding the detachment of the Regiment for volunteers to bring him in. The Medal for Distinguished Conduct in the Field has already been conferred on Drummer Stagpoole, for the energy and devotion which he displayed on the 25th September, 1863, at the affair near Kaipakopako, in having, though wounded in the head, twice volunteered and brought in wounded men.

WARRANTS, CIRCULARS, &c.

CIRCULAR, No. 871.—(Pensions of Discharged Soldiers.)

1861—9.

HOME AND FOREIGN.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS it has been found expedient to revise the Regulations under which Pensions are granted to Discharged Soldiers of Our Army : It is Our Will and Pleasure that, instead of the provisions contained in pages from 211 to 237 of Our Royal Warrant of the 1st July, 1848, which are hereby cancelled, this Our Royal Warrant, to be administered and interpreted by Our Secretary of State for War, shall be the sole and standing authority upon the matters therein contained.

Former Warrants in Force.—1. All Non-commissioned Officers and soldiers enlisted prior to the date of this Our Royal Warrant shall, as regards their claim to pension, be entitled to every benefit (not forfeited by misconduct) which they can claim under any Warrants or Regulations in force at the time of their enlistment.

Grounds of Discharge.—2. No soldier can demand his discharge as a matter of right, either with or without a pension, until the expiration of his engagement ; but discharge may be granted—

- (i.) On account of incapacity for further service.
- (ii.) In consequence of reduction of the Military Establishment.
- (iii.) As an indulgence upon certain conditions.

Ordinary Grants by Chelsea Commissioners.—3. The Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital are charged with the application of those rules which are to govern the ordinary grants of pension, and with the duty of investigating and checking each man's service prior to placing his name on the Pension List. But the Commissioners shall not, without the concurrence of the Secretary of State for War, act upon any discharge which shall not have been completed according to the form prescribed by the Secretary of State for War ; nor upon such discharge, unless it be brought before them within six months after the date on which the soldier shall have quitted the service.

Disability.—4. The pecuniary benefits attaching to cases of disability are as a rule to be limited to disability caused in and by the Service, but in cases of soldiers whose service and good conduct, combined with the information obtained at their personal examination by the proper authorities, may appear to give them a claim to some consideration, gratuities or pensions for short periods may be granted by the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, although the disability rendering them unfit to remain in the Army may not be stated in the discharge documents distinctly to have been contracted in and by the Service.

Special Grants.—5. Such other special deviations from these general rules as are hereinafter expressed, or as may appear advisable to her Majesty, will be made by the Secretary of State for War, with whom alone it rests to interpret the true intent and meaning of any passage in this Warrant on which a doubt may arise.

Increase of Pension.—6. The amount of pension granted by the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital shall not exceed the rates fixed by this Warrant. In special cases, however, of men whose disabilities shall have increased subsequently to their leaving the Service, and who shall not have been awarded the maximum rate of pension, the Commissioners may re-consider such cases, if any peculiar circumstances justifying such a proceeding shall occur and be brought forward within two years after the original grant of pension.

SOLDIERS DISCHARGED ON ACCOUNT OF INCAPACITY FOR FURTHER SERVICE.

Permanent Pensions.

Wounds received in Action.—7. Permanent pensions shall be granted to men dis-

And no Non-commissioned Officer shall receive the aforesaid superior rates, if discharged whilst holding an inferior rank.

Men incapable of earning a Livelihood.—10. To men enlisted in the Cavalry or Infantry subsequently to the 1st March, 1833, and in the Artillery or Engineers subsequently to the 15th April, 1833, and discharged after twenty-one years' service in the Artillery, Engineers or Infantry, and twenty-four years' service in the Cavalry, for disabilities contracted in and by the service, which not only unfit them for the ordinary duties of soldiers, but which render them incapable of earning a livelihood, the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital may grant a temporary increase of pension to each rank to the following extent:—

such pensions being granted either permanently or conditionally, as the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital shall in their discretion consider to be warranted by the nature of the disability. Provided, however, that in the case of a Serjeant, Corporal or Bombardier, discharged as such, his service shall have been at least of three years' duration in the rank of a Non-commissioned Officer.

The precise amount of pension shall be regulated by the time the soldier may have served, the climate in which he may have been serving, the degree of the disability as affecting his means of earning a livelihood, and his conduct while serving.

Renewal, &c. of conditional Pension.—The conditional pensions which may have been awarded by the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital to men discharged as unfit for the ordinary duties of a soldier on account of disabilities contracted in and by the service, after the completion of fourteen years' service in the Artillery, Engineers or Infantry, or of seventeen years in the Cavalry, may, under extraordinary circumstances of extreme suffering, or of continued or permanent incapacity to earn a sufficient livelihood, be renewed or made permanent.

Renewal, &c., of temporary Pension.—In severe cases of disability or injury, resulting entirely from military duty or from the effects of climate, under twenty-one years' service in the Artillery, Engineers or Infantry, or under twenty-four years' service in the Cavalry, the temporary pension may be renewed by the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital for such further period as the special circumstances of the case may, in their judgment, warrant, or, under extraordinary circumstances of extreme suffering or of permanent incapacity to earn a sufficient livelihood, the temporary pension may, on the recommendation of the Commissioners, be made permanent by the Secretary of State for War, and in special cases of men of this class, whose service shall be above fourteen but under twenty-one years in the Artillery, Engineers or Infantry, and above seventeen but under twenty-four years in the Cavalry, the rate of pension may be increased to that warranted for men discharged under the provisions of Clause 11, on account of permanent disabilities.

Gratuities in lieu of temporary Pension.—In special cases, where it may be considered more advantageous to the European soldier's interests that a gratuity in money, proportioned to the length of his services, and the duration of the temporary pension awarded, should be given instead of the temporary pension, a sum varying from 1*l.* to 30*l.* may be allowed ; but in every instance the gratuity shall be paid to the soldier only after his arrival at the place of his intended future residence.

SOLDIERS DISCHARGED ON REDUCTION.

Permanent pensions shall be allowed to men discharged without disability, in consequence of the reduction, or disbandment, of their Regiments, after a service of twenty-one years in the Artillery, Engineers or Infantry, or of twenty-four years in the Cavalry ; but the rates shall in no case exceed those granted by this Warrant, according to the date of their enlistment, to men discharged as unfit for the ordinary duties of a soldier, and shall be proportioned to the length of the man's service, and his merits as a soldier.

Temporary Pension on Reduction.—14. Temporary pensions, or the gratuities in lieu thereof, according to the scales in Article 12, may also be granted, at the discretion of the Commissioners, to men discharged, without disability, for the convenience of the Public Service, in consequence of the reduction or disbandment of their Regiments, after a service of fourteen but under twenty-one years, in the Artillery, Engineers or Infantry ; or after seventeen, but under 24 years' service, in the Cavalry, and such men shall be eligible to re-enter the Service, according to the rule laid down in Article 28.

Soldiers of good character may purchase their discharge, or obtain free discharge at their own request, upon the terms specified in the scales in Articles 16 and 17, if they shall have served the requisite period ; but the number of men to be annually discharged, and the selection of the individuals, shall be governed by such instructions as the Commander in Chief, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State for War, may give, from time to time, for extending or limiting the numbers, or for wholly suspending the permission.

Gratuities to Men becoming Settlers in the Colonies.]—When a soldier may wish to settle in the Colonies, he may, upon receiving a free discharge for that purpose, and if in good health, to be shown by medical certificate, be allowed by the Secretary of State, for War a gratuity proportionate to the length of his service, according to the following scale; but this Gratuity shall be paid to him only in the Colony in which he proposes to settle, and in such manner, and at such times, but within eighteen months after his arrival, as shall be deemed best for his interest by the General Officer in Command of the Station, or by the Governor of the Colony; but the permission to settle in the Colonies will, of course, be governed by the instructions of the Secretary of State for the Colonies; provided that, in the case of the Bombardier, Corporal and Serjeant, he shall have served continuously five years immediately preceding his discharge in the rank of Non-commissioned Officer.

Time for Deliberation.]—18. In all cases of free discharge, a period of not less than thirty days, for the purpose of giving a soldier sufficient time for deliberation, shall elapse between the soldier's application and the Commanding Officer's consent to recommend the discharge; and the prospect of permanent pension, which the soldier will forfeit by accepting a free discharge at his own request, shall be clearly explained to him.

REWARDS FOR DISTINGUISHED AND MERITORIOUS SERVICE.

Annuities.]—19. With the view of rewarding distinguished and meritorious services, and of promoting good conduct in the Army, a sum not exceeding 4,400*l.* a-year may be granted in annuities to Serjeants; and such grants may be made, either while the men are serving, or after their discharge, with or without pension, in sums not exceeding 20*l.*, which may be held during service and together with pension.

The Serjeants selected for this honorary distinction shall be entitled to receive and wear a silver medal, having on the one side the Royal Effigy, and on the other the words "For Distinguished Conduct in the Field," or "For Meritorious Service," and the name and regiment of the Serjeant, with the date of the grant; and such Serjeants will not be liable to forfeit the annuity and medal except by the sentence of a general, district or garrison court martial in accordance with the provisions of the Mutiny Act, or by conviction by court martial of desertion, or by conviction of felony by a court of civil judicature.

It shall rest with the Commander in Chief to select the individuals whom he may recommend for this honorable mark of the Royal approbation.

The special pension of 10*l.* a-year, with an additional 5*l.* for each additional bar, granted under the Warrant of 29th January, 1856, instituting the decoration of the "Victoria Cross," "For Valour," may also be held (together with the annuity for distinguished or meritorious service) during service and after discharge.

A "Distinguished Conduct" Medal may also be granted, without annuity, to Serjeants, Corporals and Privates when specially recommended by the Commander in Chief, and approved by the Secretary of State for War, for individual acts of "Distinguished Conduct in the Field."

Gratuities with Pension.]—20. With a view of further rewarding meritorious soldiers when discharged, and of encouraging good conduct in others when serving, the Commanding Officer of every Regiment, Battalion or Corps may annually recommend to the Commander in Chief such Non-commissioned Officers and men, while serving, as he shall consider best entitled to a gratuity, provided that the amount recommended to be given in any one year shall not exceed—

For a Regiment, Battalion or Corps under 700 rank and file ... ..	20	12

The annual amount for the Royal Regiment of Artillery and Royal Engineers will be 30*l.* for every 700, or 40*l.* for every 900 rank and file, and 20*l.* for any remainder under 700, or 30*l.* for any remainder under 900 rank and file.

Commanding Officers will be unfettered in their discretion in recommending this gratuity to be conferred upon such individuals, whether Serjeants, Corporals, Bombardiers, Gunners, Drivers, Sappers or Privates, as they may be satisfied to have been the best conducted men, the only limitation being the aggregate amount to be annually awarded.

To a Corporal or Bombardier who shall have served seven years as such, or to a Serjeant who shall have served seven years as Bombardier, Corporal and Serjeant ... ..	10	6
To a Gunner, Driver, Sapper or Private ... ..	5	3

In any year in which an European Non-commissioned Officer of a Black Corps shall be awarded a gratuity, the same shall be allowed at the rate for Europeans; but in order that the interests of the Coloured Soldiers shall not be prejudiced by the association with them of Europeans, the difference between such rate and that for Blacks may be admitted in excess of the total sum for the year, according to the Scale for Black Regiments, provided the whole amount does not exceed that to which an European Regiment of equal strength would be entitled.

The men to be recommended for this gratuity, without reference to the total length of their service, must, in the Cavalry for twenty-one years, and in the Artillery, Engineers or Infantry for eighteen years, have borne an irreproachable character, and have not during those periods been convicted by a court martial; or if not coming strictly within these latter conditions, must have particularly distinguished themselves by gallantry and zeal in the service.

The gratuity so awarded will, shortly after presentation of the medal, be placed in the Regimental Savings Bank, to be there held, not under the control of the soldier, but at interest until his discharge, and shall be deemed to be his personal property, subject only to surrender on promotion to the rank of Commissioned Officer, or upon a medal with annuity for distinguished conduct in the field or for meritorious conduct being awarded; or to forfeiture by desertion or by the sentence of a general, district or garrison court martial in accordance with the provisions of the Mutiny Act, or by the conviction of felony by a court of civil judicature; and should he die before he has completed twenty-four years' service in the Cavalry, or twenty-one years' service in the Artillery, Engineers or Infantry, or after completing such service before his discharge, such gratuity, with its accumulated interest, shall be deemed to be a part of his effects, and be payable to his legal representative.

With the view of further marking meritorious conduct and of inciting other soldiers to imitate such conduct, the soldiers to whom the above gratuity may be awarded shall be entitled to wear a silver medal, having on one side the words "for long service and good conduct," and on the other side the Royal Arms, with the name and rank of the soldier. This medal will be delivered to the soldier by the Commanding Officer of the regiment, battalion or corps on parade, and shall be worn by him as an honorable testimonial of his conduct during the remainder of his service.

The Commander in Chief will notify to the Secretary of State for War the names of the individuals to whom these gratuities and medals shall have been periodically awarded, in order that he may sanction the investment of the amount of the gratuity in the Regimental Savings Banks, and the Secretary of State, upon receiving a notification that the individuals are about to be discharged with such gratuity and medal, will, so far as is practicable, notify to the parishes in which the men intend to reside the honorable distinction which has been conferred upon them.

It is clearly to be understood that the two Rewards, namely, the Medal and Gratuity for long service and good conduct, or for distinguished service, and the Medal with Annuity for distinguished or meritorious conduct, cannot be held by the same soldier at the same time, and that, consequently, the grant of the medal and annuity must be dependent upon the voluntary surrender of the medal and gratuity, if the same shall have been previously awarded; the only exception to this rule being that a good conduct or distinguished service Medal may, if the distinctive inscription thereon differs from that on the annuity Medal, be retained by a Non-commissioned Officer on his becoming an annuitant, although the Gratuity must be relinquished.

The gratuity so relinquished will, however, be available for any other deserving soldier or soldiers of the corps, whether actually serving or not, provided they were serving in the year for which the medal and gratuity were originally awarded, and had fulfilled the required conditions as to service and character in that year.

The accumulated interest on the gratuity, to the date preceding that from which the annuity commences, shall be paid to the Non-commissioned Officer who relinquishes the gratuity.

Medal without Gratuity.—21. The medal for long service and good conduct without gratuity may be awarded in the following proportions to Non-commissioned Officers and Privates of the Regular Army, and to Non-commissioned Officers and Drummers on the permanent staff of the Militia who have fulfilled the before-mentioned conditions, but who are precluded from becoming recipients of the medal with a gratuity in consequence of the aggregate amount to be annually awarded being already appropriated:—

To each Cavalry regiment and battalion of the Military Train,—Two.

To each brigade of Royal Artillery,—Three.

To every 900 men of the Royal Engineers,—Three.

To each Infantry regiment or battalion,—Three.

The soldiers to whom the above proportion of non-gratuity medals are to be awarded may include discharged Non-commissioned Officers and Privates, if recommended by the Commanding Officers of their former corps within three years after their discharge, provided they were qualified at the time of their discharge to receive such medals.

Non-commissioned Officers and Drummers on the permanent staff of the Militia who were eligible previously to their discharge from the Army for the medal with gratuity shall be eligible to receive medals without gratuities, in the proportion for each year of three for a regiment of 750 Non-commissioned Officers and men, and two for a regiment under that number, and no limit shall be placed on the grant as regards the date of discharge from the Army in the case of men so serving. Their names are to be submitted to the Commander in Chief by the Officer commanding the Militia regiment to which they may belong, who will prove their qualification by transmitting with the recommendation a statement of their Army services, exemption from trial by court martial, &c., according to the prescribed form, and certified by the Commanding Officers of their former corps. Staff Serjeants and Quartermaster Serjeants of Pension Districts, Barrack Serjeants, Recruiting District Staff Serjeants, Staff Clerks and other Pensioners employed under military control in equally responsible appointments, shall also be eligible to receive medals without gratuities on the same conditions as before mentioned. Their names are to be submitted to the Commander in Chief by the Staff Officer of Pensioners if employed under him, or by their immediate military power, in the case may be. But no person, whether employed on the permanent Staff of the Militia, or in any of the capacities above indicated, shall be eligible to receive a medal without gratuity until after the completion of not less than twelve months' service in any of these capacities.

The Commander in Chief will notify from time to time to the Secretary of State for War the names of all those persons, including Non-commissioned Officers and Drummers on the permanent staff of the Militia, and Pensioners employed in any of the capacities above indicated, to whom medals without gratuities shall be awarded, in order that record of the same may be preserved in the War Office.

A "Distinguished Conduct" Medal may also be granted, without gratuity, to Serjeants, Corporals and Privates, when specially recommended by the Commander in Chief, and approved by the Secretary of State for War, for individual acts of "Distinguished Conduct in the Field."

Black Soldiers.—In the case of Blacks, the soldier will appear before the Board of Officers assembled for the purpose of inquiring into the case; and the principal Medical Officer, or Staff Surgeon, who has had the man under treatment, will attend the Board on the day appointed by the proper authority in the Colony, with an abstract of his professional observations on the case, when the Board will report upon the soldier's claim to pension for the consideration of the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital.

RULES FOR RECKONING SERVICE TOWARDS PENSION.

Date of Attestation and Age of Soldier.—26. The date of attestation shall be the commencement of a soldier's service; which service, including first and subsequent continuous periods (according to the provisions of the Limited Enlistment Act) shall reckon towards pension from the age of eighteen years, but the former service of a discharged soldier re-engaging or re-enlisting, when allowed to reckon, is not to count towards the completion of any period of limited service for which he may have re-engaged, but only towards the completion of qualification for good-conduct pay and pension.

Three years' service actually performed by European soldiers on the West Coast of Africa shall count as five years towards claim to pension on discharge.

The age specified in the attestation shall be taken to be the real age; and the soldier shall in no case benefit by the subsequent discovery of any misrepresentation.

A soldier exchanging from Cavalry to Infantry, or from one regular service to another, or a soldier transferred from the late East India Company's Service to the regular Army, shall reckon his service for pension according to the periods and regulations applicable to the Corps in which he may be serving when discharged.

But he shall not reckon as Military service any previous service in Her Majesty's Navy, nor any period during which he shall not be entitled to pay, according to the provisions of the Mutiny Act.

Service in the Corps of Royal Marines shall be allowed to reckon as Military service.

Service in the Irish Constabulary shall be allowed to count towards good conduct pay and pension on discharge, but not towards completion of the period for which the soldier shall have enlisted.

Continuous Service of Non-commissioned Officers.—27. No Non-commissioned Officer shall, on his discharge, have any claim to the allowance or pension awarded to a Bombardier, Corporal or Serjeant, except for continuous service immediately preceding his discharge, in the rank he held when discharged; but if a Serjeant shall be discharged without having served continuously as Serjeant the full period prescribed by this Warrant to entitle him to the pension of that rank, he may be allowed to reckon as Bombardier or Corporal's service the whole of his continuous service as a Non-commissioned Officer, to entitle him to the rate of pension allowed to the rank of Bombardier or Corporal; and antecedent service as a Non-commissioned Officer in a rank from which he may have been reduced may be specially admitted to reckon as part of his continuous service, provided it be established to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State for War that such reduction in rank was on account of the public service, and did not result from any irregularity or misconduct on the part of the soldier himself.

DISCHARGED MEN RE-ENGAGING OR RE-ENLISTING.

Free Discharge, or Discharge by Purchase, &c.—28. A soldier of good character, discharged after the completion of the first term of limited service, will be permitted to re-engage or re-enlist within twelve months from the date of his discharge for any Corps of the same arm of the service as that from which he was discharged, provided he is not above thirty-four years of age. A man so re-engaging or re-enlisting will be allowed to count the full period of his former service towards claim to pension; provided, that at the time of his re-engagement or re-enlistment he shall declare the period of his former service and the cause of his discharge from his last Corps.

A soldier of good character discharged on reduction or on account of disability, with or without pension, by purchase or otherwise, during the first term of limited service, who shall re-enlist within twelve months from the date of his discharge, and is not above thirty-four years of age, will be allowed the benefit of the preceding provision for reckoning former service.

Discharged soldiers of the late East India Company's Service, except those who claimed their discharge under the Act 21 & 22 Vict. c. 108, on being called upon to transfer their service to the Regular Army, will on re-enlisting be allowed to reckon former service under this Warrant.

A soldier re-enlisting who, on discharge, received a gratuity as a settlor, must, to entitle him to reckon former service, refund such gratuity.

A portion of the money which shall have been paid for the discharge of a soldier who re-enlists within six months may, at the discretion of the Secretary of State for War, be returned to the party who paid the money, but it cannot be claimed as a right.

Soldier misrepresenting the Cause of Discharge.—A soldier discharged from the Army for disability or for any other cause who shall, on re-engaging or re-enlisting, conceal the fact or misrepresent the cause of his former discharge, shall not be allowed to reckon his past service, or to receive any pension, if again discharged for disability.

Service in a Veteran Battalion, &c.—A pensioner who shall, under a proclamation of Her Majesty or other lawful authority, be called upon to serve in a Veteran Battalion or Company, or to be attached to a Regiment of the Line, within the United Kingdom, or who shall volunteer for such service, shall, on his discharge, reckon such service towards increase of pension, provided the period be not less than one year; and provided also, he shall not be in receipt of the maximum pension of his rank; and the like advantage may be allowed to a Black pensioner serving in a Veteran Battalion or Company in the Colonies.

Increase of Pension in certain Cases.—A pensioner (European) who shall be appointed a District, Barrack or Garrison Serjeant, or a Military Clerk, or Staff or Quarter Master Serjeant in a pension district, or who shall be employed in any other military capacity, may reckon such service towards increase of pension; but the rates allowed by Article 9 of this Warrant are not to be exceeded.

Service of Master Gunners.—The service of a Master Gunner permitted to retire on a pension shall be calculated on the scale applicable to a Serjeant, and pension will be awarded accordingly, in addition to any other pension he was entitled to for former service in the Artillery or other corps, but such pension shall not in any case exceed the pay of a Master Gunner.

Service of Military Store Clerks.—A Military Store Clerk on retiring from the Military Store Service will be allowed an addition of  $\frac{1}{4}$  d. a day to his pension for each year of service in the Military Store Department.

All Non-commissioned Officers and Privates of this Corps shall be liable to be discharged from the service at any time that the Commander in Chief shall think fit, without any claim to compensation beyond the scale of pensions hereinafter laid down, and they may be re-transferred, by order of the Commander in Chief, for misconduct, unfitness, or any other cause which the Commander in Chief may deem sufficient, to the Regiment or Corps of the Army from which they may have been transferred to this Corps.

COMMISSARIAT STAFF CORPS.

33. The periods of service and rules for reckoning such service, and the rates of pensions of Non-commissioned Officers and Privates of this Corps will be the same as those for Non-commissioned Officers and Privates of Infantry.

34. Although the grant of pensions to Non-commissioned Officers and Men of the School of Musketry, the Army Hospital Corps, Trained Schoolmasters and Armorer Serjeants is regulated by the above special provisions, the rules for reckoning service, as in Clauses 26 and 27, are to be observed, so far as such rules are applicable to those branches of the Service.

FORFEITURE OF SERVICE AND PENSION.

Soldiers.

35. A soldier found guilty by Court Martial of either of the following offences forfeits all claim to reckon his service anterior to such conviction for pension on discharge :—

Desertion.—1. Of desertion.

Maiming himself, &c.—2. Of wilfully maiming or injuring himself or any other soldier, whether at the instance of such other soldier or not, or of causing himself to be maimed or injured by any other person, with intent to render himself or such other soldier unfit for service.

3. Of tampering with his eyes, with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service.

A soldier may be further sentenced for these and other offences (particularized in the Mutiny Act and Articles of War) to forfeiture of all claim to pension on discharge, whether such claim may have accrued from past service or might accrue from future service.

Felony, &c.—A soldier who has been sentenced to penal servitude, or who has been discharged with ignominy, or who has been convicted by a civil tribunal of felony, forfeits all claim to reckon service anterior to such conviction.

Restoration of Pension.—If in either of the above cases the soldier shall, subsequently to such conviction, have performed good, faithful or gallant service, he may, on the same being duly certified by the Commander in Chief, be restored to the benefit of the whole or of any part of his service, upon Her Majesty's pleasure to that effect being signified by the Secretary of State for War.

Record of Forfeiture.—Non-commissioned Officers and soldiers who have forfeited their claims to pension in consequence of misconduct shall have their names, and the circumstances under which their pensions were forfeited, published in the orderly book of the Regiment to which they belong.

Causes of Forfeiture of Pension, &c.—A pensioner shall be subject to forfeiture of pension under the following circumstances :—

1. For wilfully obtaining credit for more than his actual service, by means of false entries, alterations or erasure in Regimental books or documents, or by any misrepresentation of his real claims.
2. For the commission of any felonious act, or gross fraud, proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital.

5. For gross violence or outrage towards any person paying the pensioners.
6. For assuming a false name when committed or imprisoned by the magistrates on any charge of vagrancy or of any misdemeanor or crime.
7. Upon conviction, by a civil tribunal, for felony, or for any vicious or disgraceful conduct.

But the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, with the consent of the Secretary of State for War, may, in certain cases appearing to them to admit of such an act of grace, restore the whole or a portion of the original rate of pension.

Any pensioner who neglects to draw his pension for four successive quarters shall be struck off the Pension List, and shall not be replaced, unless he shall satisfactorily account for such omission; and the Secretary of State for War shall, at his discretion, grant or withhold the arrears, or any portion thereof.

If a pensioner shall apply to any parish for relief for himself or family, or shall suffer his family to become chargeable to the parish, his pension will become payable to the parish officers, according to the provisions of the law.

A pensioner, on his admission to Chelsea or Kilmainham Hospital as an in-pensioner, forfeits all claim to the out-pension; but the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital or Governors of Kilmainham Hospital may, upon reasonable cause assigned to them, permit any in-pensioner to retire from the said Hospital, and may also dismiss an in-pensioner who has been guilty of misconduct; reserving to themselves the power of restoring or of reducing the amount of the pension to which such pensioner was entitled on his admission.

36. Should a pensioner lose his Instructions, and make an application for a fresh copy, he may be supplied therewith on making an affidavit of the circumstances under which the original was lost, and provided it shall be shown that the same had not been pledged or improperly disposed of; but if the pensioner be proved to have taken a false oath, he shall be struck off the Pension List. When new Instructions are given he shall be liable to pay for them a sum not exceeding 2s. 6d., nor less than 1s.

It is to be understood, however, that no schoolmistress shall have an unqualified claim to a pension until she has actually served for a period of twenty-one years; and although intermediate rates are laid down for shorter periods, they will only be granted where failing health disqualifies the schoolmistress for further service; this must be satisfactorily established by a Medical Board, with a view to the application being specially considered by the Commander in Chief and Secretary of State for War.

Intermediate periods of non-employment will not be allowed to count.

Every soldier whose heir may be entitled to a pension under these Regulations is permitted to select and name his heir from the foregoing line of succession.

The name of the heir is to be entered in the books of the Company.

Should no such nomination have been made, or should any just doubt exist as to its having been made, then the order adopted in the foregoing line of succession is to be the guide in the grant of pension.

The pension is to be granted for the following periods :—

to his pay; but should an heir thus circumstanced be subsequently discharged from the Service in consequence of ill-health or other unfitness not affecting his character, then he will be entitled to the full pension upon the same terms as other heirs not in the service of the State; and when the heir may be in the receipt of a pension inferior to the pension claimable under these Regulations, he or she must relinquish the inferior pension, no heir being permitted to receive two pensions from the State.

RESERVE FORCE.

39. On the termination of the period of service for which men have engaged in the Reserve Force, and on the fulfilment of the other conditions in the Warrant of 9th December, 1859, they shall reckon two years' service in the Reserve Force as on towards the attainment of the several periods of service, provided they shall have been enrolled within five years after discharge from the Army, and they shall be entitled to the same rates of pension as they would have obtained by the Warrants under which they originally enlisted, had they continued to serve in the Corps from which they were discharged till they completed the period of twenty-one and twenty-four years respectively, and they shall be permitted to add to such pension an amount equal to the good-conduct pay of which they had been in continuous receipt for two years immediately preceding the date of their discharge. Such pension, however, shall in no case exceed Tenpence a-day for a Private, One Shilling for a Corporal, or One Shilling and Threepence for a Serjeant or other superior Non-commissioned Officer; but except by special authority no service shall be reckoned for any year in which the person enrolled has not resided at his registered place of abode, or has unlawfully absented himself during any portion of the exercise for which he shall have been called out in terms of the Act before referred to.

All persons enrolled in the Reserve Force who may be wounded or disabled in the execution of their duty, shall be entitled to the same pension as, under similar circumstances and for the like service, would have been granted in the regular forces of His Majesty, and when called out on permanent or continuous duty for any period exceeding three months, the whole of such period shall be reckoned according to the usual regulations of the Service, and not at the rate of two years for one.

The Staff Officer of the Pension District in which persons have been enrolled for the Reserve Force, or such other officers as may be appointed for that purpose, shall keep record of the number of days' service performed by each person in the course of the year, as ascertained either from that Officer's own knowledge or the report of the Commanding Officer of the regiment or dépôt with which such person may have been trained, and also of the extent of his service prior to leaving his regiment, so that he may be enabled to report to the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital when the right pension has been attained in each case; and the Officer or Officers by whom such person has been trained shall also note on a certificate to be given to him whether the extent of service which he was bound to perform up to the 31st of March in each year has been regularly completed.

No person enrolled in the Reserve Force shall be compelled to serve in a grade lower than that which he last held in his corps, but any interval which may take place in his service while awaiting a vacancy shall not be allowed to reckon towards pension. In the event, however, of such persons agreeing to serve in a lower grade till vacancy offer, they shall be entitled to reckon such service towards the pension of the higher grade after it has been attained.

Instead of Articles 2 and 11,—

A discretionary power is hereby given to General Officers, and to Officers commanding Garrisons, Regiments or Battalions, when there is no General or other superior Officer at the station, to authorize the Barrack Master to issue 10 lbs. of coal per day, for each Guard-room grate in permanent barracks, in addition to the issues sanctioned by Article 1, Circular 851, and also to issue one-third fuel in addition to the regulated allowances under Circular 767, for warming the Rooms of Regimental Officers and men, and Orderly Rooms and Guards in wooden barracks or wooden huts, whenever the weather is so unusually severe as to render it necessary for the health of the Troops that such extra issues should be made, and Barrack Masters will make such extra issues on requisitions signed as laid down by Article 5 of Circular 851.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM. Gen. No. 305.

Addressed to General Officers in Command, and Officers commanding Depôt Battalions.

Medical Officers.—1 (1864).

Horse Guards, S. W., 28th July, 1864.

THE Field Marshal Commanding in Chief having decided that it is not necessary for Acting Assistant Surgeons to wear uniform, His Royal Highness desires that General Officers commanding Districts and Divisions, and Officers commanding Depôt Battalions, will recognize these gentlemen in the performance of their duties, without being in uniform.

By Command of HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS

THE FIELD MARSHAL COMMANDING IN CHIEF.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM. Gen. No. 306.

Addressed to General Officers commanding Districts and Divisions at Home and Abroad.

Miscellaneous 2—(1864).

Horse Guards, S. W., 4th August, 1864.

THE New Instructions for the recovery of the apparently drowned having been issued by the Royal National Lifeboat Institution, His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, in the belief that a knowledge of the same throughout the Army would be beneficial to the Service, is pleased to call upon General Officers commanding Districts and Divisions to cause a Copy to be conspicuously placed in every Hospital and Barrack in their respective commands.

A supply of the Instructions is inclosed.

By Command. JAMES YORKE SCARLETT, Adj. Gen.

DIRECTIONS for Restoring the apparently Drowned.

The leading principles of the following Directions for the Restoration of the apparently drowned from Drowning are founded on those of the late Dr. Marshall Hall, combined with those of Dr. H. R. Silvester, and are the result of extensive inquiries which were made by the Institution in 1863-4, amongst medical men, medical bodies and coroners throughout the United Kingdom. These Directions have been extensively circulated by the Institution throughout the United Kingdom and in the Colonies. They are also in Her Majesty's Fleet and in the Coast-guard Service.

Send immediately for medical assistance, blankets and dry clothing, but proceed at the patient instantly on the spot, in the open air, with the face downward, whether on shore or afloat; exposing the face, neck and chest to the wind, except in severe weather, and removing all tight clothing from the neck and chest, especially the shoes.

The points to be aimed at are,—first and immediately, the restoration of breathing; secondly, after breathing is restored, the promotion of warmth and circulation.

The efforts to restore breathing must be commenced immediately and energetically, and persevered in for one or two hours, or until a medical man has pronounced that life is extinct. Efforts to promote warmth and circulation, beyond removing the wet clothes and drying the skin, must not be made until the first appearance of natural breathing. For if circulation of the blood be induced before breathing has recommenced, the restoration to life will be endangered.

TO RESTORE BREATHING.

[To clear the Throat.]—Place the patient on the floor or ground with the face downwards, and one of the arms under the forehead, in which position all fluids will readily escape by the mouth, and the tongue itself will fall forward, leaving the entrance into the windpipe free. Assist this operation by wiping and cleansing the mouth.

If satisfactory breathing commences, use the treatment described below to promote warmth. If there be only slight breathing, or no breathing, or if the breathing fails again—

[To excite Breathing.]—Turn the patient well and instantly on the side, supporting the head.

Excite the nostrils with snuff, hartshorn or smelling salts, or tickle the throat with a feather, &c., if they are at hand. Rub the chest and face warm, and dash cold water, or cold and hot water alternately, on them.

If there be no success, lose not a moment, but instantly—

To imitate Breathing.—Replace the patient on the face, raising and supporting the chest well on a folded coat or other article of dress.

Turn the body very gently on the side and a little beyond, and then briskly on the face, back again; repeating these measures cautiously, efficiently and perseveringly about fifteen times in the minute, or once every four or five seconds, occasionally varying the side.

[By placing the patient on the chest, the weight of the body forces the air out; when turned on the side this pressure is removed, and air enters the chest.]

On each occasion that the body is replaced on the face, make uniform but efficient pressure with brisk movement on the back between and below the shoulder-blades or bones on each side, removing the pressure immediately before turning the body on the side.

During the whole of the operations let one person attend solely to the movements of the head, and of the arm placed under it.

[The first measure increases the expiration, the second commences inspiration.

The result is respiration or natural breathing, and, if not too late, life.

Whilst the above operations are being proceeded with, dry the hands and feet; and as soon as dry clothing or blankets can be procured, strip the body, and cover or gradually re-clothe it, but taking care not to interfere with the efforts to restore breathing.

III. Should these efforts not prove successful in the course of from two to five minutes, proceed to imitate breathing by Dr. Silvester's method, as follows:—

Place the patient on the back on a flat surface, inclined a little upwards from the feet; raise and support the head and shoulders on a small firm cushion or folded article of dress placed under the shoulder-blades.

Draw forward the patient's tongue, and keep it projecting beyond the lips; an elastic band over the tongue and under the chin will answer this purpose, or a piece of string or tape may be tied round them, or by raising the lower jaw the teeth may be made to retain the tongue in that position. Remove all tight clothing from about the neck and chest, especially the braces.

To imitate the Movements of Breathing.—Standing at the patient's head, grasp the arms just above the elbows, and draw the arms gently and steadily upwards above the head, and keep them stretched upwards for two seconds. (By this means air is drawn into the lungs.) Then turn down the patient's arms, and press them gently and firmly for two seconds against the sides of the chest. (By this means air is pressed out of the lungs.)

Repeat these measures alternately, deliberately and perseveringly, about fifteen times in a minute, until a spontaneous effort to respire is perceived, immediately upon which cease to imitate the movements of breathing, and proceed to induce circulation and warmth.

TREATMENT AFTER NATURAL BREATHING HAS BEEN RESTORED.

To promote Warmth and Circulation.—Commence rubbing the limbs upwards, with firm grasping pressure and energy, using handkerchiefs, flannels, &c. (By this measure the blood is propelled along the veins towards the heart.)

The friction must be continued under the blanket or over the dry clothing.

Promote the warmth of the body by the application of hot flannels, bottles or bladders of hot water, heated bricks, &c., to the pit of the stomach, the arm-pits, between the thighs, and to the soles of the feet.

If the patient has been carried to a house after respiration has been restored, be careful to let the air play freely about the room.

On the restoration of life, a teaspoonful of warm water should be given; and then, if the power of swallowing has returned, small quantities of wine, warm brandy and water, or coffee, should be administered. The patient should be kept in bed, and a disposition to sleep encouraged.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

The above treatment should be persevered in for some hours, as it is an erroneous opinion that persons are irrecoverable because life does not soon make its appearance, persons having been restored after persevering for many hours.

APPEARANCES WHICH GENERALLY ACCOMPANY DEATH.

Breathing and the heart's action cease entirely; the eyelids are generally half-closed; the pupils dilated; the jaws clenched; the fingers semi-contracted; the tongue approaches to the under edges of the lips, and these, as well as the nostrils, are covered with a frothy mucus. Coldness and pallor of surface increase.

CAUTIONS.

Prevent unnecessary crowding of persons round the body, especially if in an apartment.

Avoid rough usage, and do not allow the body to remain on the back unless the tongue is secured.

Under no circumstances hold the body up by the feet.

On no account place the body in a warm bath, unless under medical direction, and even then it should only be employed as a momentary excitant.

By order of the Committee.

Hospital Orderlies.—2 (1864).

Horse Guards, S. W., 9th August, 1864.

His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief is pleased to direct that the operation of Circular Memorandum dated 3rd October, 1862, No. 224, shall be extended to Depot Battalions, unnecessary expense having been incurred through a proportion of the permanent Hospital Staff not having accompanied detachments to Out-Stations.

Officers commanding Depot Battalions will henceforth be held responsible for attendance on the sick of detachments being provided for in accordance with the terms of the above-quoted Circular.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM. Gen. No. 224.

Addressed to the Army at Home and Abroad.

Horse Guards, S. W., 3rd October, 1862.

His Royal Highness the General Commanding in Chief desires that, when Regiments are divided and Detachment Hospitals necessarily opened, a due proportion of the permanent Hospital Staff be attached thereto for ward duty, according to the strength of detachments and probable average number of sick.

It is anticipated that the liberal permanent Staff now allowed for hospital duty will be equal to all ordinary requirements, but there will be no objection to the issue of diets to special Orderlies in accordance with the War Office Circular No. 733, of the 1st January, 1862, when such are necessarily required at the Regimental Head Quarters, in addition to the number of permanent Orderlies left there for duty after providing for the wants of Detachment Hospitals.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 852.

Schools—4 (1864).

Horse Guards, S.W., 16th September, 1864.

ARRANGEMENTS having been made to provide a regular supply of diagrams and magic lantern slides, to illustrate the lectures which may be given during the ensuing winter to the troops at the several Stations in the United Kingdom named in the annexed list marked A, the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief desires attention to the following rules, which have been drawn up for regulating this service,—and he looks for the co-operation of Commanding Officers towards carrying out the same,—by ensuring the circulation of the slides and diagrams with that regularity upon which the success of the measure will mainly depend, and by the maintenance of order and decorum during the delivery of the lectures.

General Officers commanding at the several Foreign Stations specified in the list B will be pleased to give effect to these regulations within their respective commands, as far as local circumstances will permit, reporting from time to time their arrangements to this Department for the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief's information, and with a view to the same being communicated to the Council of Military Education.

1. The boxes and diagrams, the present Stations of which are shown in the annexed list A, should be placed in charge of the senior schoolmaster at the Station, or of some other schoolmaster detailed for that duty by the Officer commanding.

2. No box or set of diagrams is to be kept at any Station longer than three weeks, at the end of which, it is to be forwarded to the station next in order, as shown by list A.

3. As soon as a box has been forwarded, the form No. 1,* properly filled up, is to be sent to the address given at the bottom of the form.

4. The form No. 2,* is to be filled up and sent to the same address, on the receipt of a box of slides.

The name of the station, the date and the full title of the box, should be written on each form.

5. When any of the slides are broken or injured, full particulars respecting the damage done are to be written on the margin of form 2.

6. The slides must be carefully placed in each box, in the order given in the detailed lists, and the spaces between the slides and the sides of the box filled up with the wool which has been supplied for this purpose. The slides must be properly packed, to prevent breakage in the transit. The chromatrope, in packing, should be placed at the back of the box.

7. Each box is to be carefully locked, wrapped up in strong paper, and addressed to the officer commanding at the station to which it is to be sent.—

Magic Lantern Slides, Per Rail, &c.

* These forms and notices of lectures will be supplied by the Council of Military Education, on application.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 852—continued.

8. The diagrams must be rolled carefully on the piece of wood that is forwarded with each set, packed in strong brown paper, and addressed as stated in No. 7. The word Diagrams is to be written instead of Magic Lantern Slides.

9. As some of the keys of the circulating boxes have been lost, a pass-key will in future be sent to each of the camps, garrisons, &c., to which the boxes of slides are transmitted. This pass-key is to be given over to the schoolmaster having charge of the magic lanterns, and he will, on removal to another station, deliver it over with the magic lanterns, boxes and diagrams he may have in his possession to such schoolmaster as may be detailed under the orders of the General or other Officer in command for that duty.

10. The circulation of the boxes and diagrams is to commence on the 15th of October, 1864, and to cease in March, 1865.

11. The boxes and diagrams should circulate not later than the periods stated below:—

I. October 15th, 1864.

II. November 7th, „

III. „ 28th, „

IV. December 19th, „

V. January 16th, 1865.*

VI. February 6th, „

VII. March 1st, „

VIII. „ 25th, „

The boxes and diagrams are to remain at the stations to which they may be sent in March, in charge of the schoolmaster, until again required for circulation.

12. The text books which lecturers may require for the preparation of their lectures,† cannot be supplied at the public expense. They should be provided by the Garrison Library Committees out of the library funds. As the boxes are transmitted to the stations in succession, each schoolmaster will find, on referring to list A, the subject on which he will have to lecture when the next set of diagrams or box of slides shall reach the station to which he is attached.

13. Application should be made as early as possible,‡ in conformity with War Office Circular, No. 601, for such of the following articles as may be required, viz.:—Best Sperm Oil.—Wicks.—Tin Oil Filler.—Chimney Glasses.—Chamois Leather.—Camphor.—Spirits of Wine.—Black Oxide of Manganese.—Chlorate of Potash.—Lime Ball Cylinders.—Metal Rods for Sheet.—Pair of Scissors.—Brown Paper for Packing.—Twine for Packing.—Sheet or Screen, when required.

And also for authority for the following payments:—

(1.) Carriage of the boxes of circulating magic lantern slides.

(2.) Postage of letters on the subject of their circulation.

(3.) Washing of the cloth screen or sheet.

14. All communications respecting the magic lanterns, lectures, &c., are to be addressed to—

The Secretary,

Council of Military Education,

13, Great George Street,

London, S.W.

Marked in corner

(Magic Lanterns.)

15. Lecturers should bear in mind, that:

(1.) As a general rule, it is not advisable that the lecture should exceed an hour in delivery.

(2.) The lecture should be made as interesting as possible; statistical and dry details ought to be omitted, unless the lecturer considers it absolutely necessary that such should be mentioned, for the sake of illustration or comparison.

(3.) All explanations should be in clear and simple language; but, where technical and scientific terms are necessary, they should be explained and rendered as intelligible as possible, having reference to the class the lecturer is addressing.

(4.) No slide should be allowed to remain in the lantern longer than ten minutes.

16. An account of the lectures delivered during the season, both at home and abroad, is to be transmitted in April, on the form provided for this purpose.

By Command of HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS

THE FIELD MARSHAL COMMANDING IN CHIEF.
